

Wednesday - 24 May 1950

1. Delivered report on Russian Rubber Purchases during 1949 to Mr. Blandford of House Armed Services, and Mr. Galusha of Senate Armed Services.

2. Met with Yale Millington and Walter H. Rapp of the Department of State, regarding formal transfer of various materials from the library of the State Department to the Map Branch, CIA.

3. Spoke with Sen. McCarthy in connection with his release of all material in connection with his charges of communism in the Government. Sen. McCarthy promised that he would not mention CIA in any way and would not release any material in connection with CIA. He

4. At the request of the State Department, explained to Senator Ferguson that CIA took no position either for or against the Displaced Persons legislation, and that any representation that we were actively opposed to it was not correct. In regard to the special provision that would allow the United States to bring in 15,000 DP's from behind the Iron Curtain, it was our opinion that the screening provisions were the most stringent of any in the bill and would afford as good or better protection to the United States as any provision in the bill. I informed Mr. Fierst of the State Department of the above conversation, for which he was extremely grateful.

(over)

STATINTL